

Making a lily: <https://youtu.be/NQldUF3zGis>

Lily/hibiscus, Ali Brown: <https://www.alibrown.nz/weaving-a-flax-flower-or-putiputi/>
Ali Brown sells a range of books with great instructions and pictures of each step:
<https://www.alibrown.nz>

Wind up rose: <https://youtu.be/2NNgXyDPZx8>

I also generally like the way Katarina demonstrates how to weave, and she is the kaitiaki of the Renee Orchison collection of harakeke in Lincoln which is an amazing place to visit and collect from.

Whetū / stars: <https://youtu.be/GTdQDCvS1mQ>

Wind up rose again: https://youtu.be/b0-56s2_BNw
Ben Reynolds has some helpful videos

Learning to properly hāpine / soften the harakeke is essential for making lilies and moving onto other weaving projects: <https://youtu.be/FIXvWuZFPTo>

Flaxworx is another great channel to look through, best for weavers who have learnt in person and need pattern reminders etc.

Pop up kete / konae / purse: <https://youtu.be/7qvJfvg4pF8>

Rita's website has a "weavers circle" you can subscribe to, she sells dyes and some of her weaving as well: <https://flaxworx.co.nz/>